PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT

SECTION 51 MANUAL

Lwezi Technologies

1 INTRODUCTION

This Manual is published in terms of Section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act No. 2 of 2000 (“the PAIA Act”). The PAIA Act gives effect to the provisions of Section 32 of the Constitution, which provides for the right of access to information held by the State and to information held by another person that is required for the exercise and/or protection of any right.

The reference to any information in addition to that specifically required in terms of Section 51 of the PAIA Act does not create any right or entitlement (contractual or otherwise) to receive such information, other than in terms of the PAIA Act.

2 LWEZI OVERVIEW

Lwezi Technologies CC (“Lwezi”) provides Internet Services and Access to its customers, in both the corporate and home market.

Lwezi supports the constitutional right of access to information and is committed to providing you with access to our records in accordance with the provisions of the PAIA Act, tempered by the confidentiality we owe to third parties and in accordance with the principles of South African law.

3 AVAILABILITY OF THIS MANUAL

A copy of this Manual is available on our website (<http://wezi.co.za>) or by sending a request for a copy to the Information Officer by email. This Manual will be updated from time to time, as and when necessary.

4 GUIDE ON HOW TO USE THE PAIA ACT

The Information Regulator has, in terms of section 10(1) of the PAIA Act, provided a guide on how to use the PAIA Act (“the Guide”).

It is designed to be easily understood by a person who wishes to exercise any right provided for in the PAIA Act or in the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (“the POPI Act”).

The Guide is available in all of the official languages as well as in braille, and contains a description of, amongst other things:

- the objects of the PAIA Act and the POPIA Act;
- the postal and street address, phone and fax number and, if available, electronic mail address of the Information Officer of every public body,
- the manner and form of a request for access to a record of a public or private body;
- the assistance available from the Information Regulator in terms of the PAIA and POPIA Acts;
- the remedies available regarding an act or failure to act in respect of a right or duty conferred or imposed by the PAIA and POPIA Acts; and

- fees to be paid for requests for access to information.

During normal working hours, members of the public can inspect or make copies of the Guide from the offices of both private and public bodies, including the office of the Information Regulator, during normal working hours.

[PAIA Forms - Information Regulator \(info regulator.org.za\)](http://info regulator.org.za)

The Guide can also be obtained as follows:

- upon request to an Information Officer or to the Information by means of the relevant request form available for download at [PAIA Forms - Information Regulator \(info regulator.org.za\)](http://info regulator.org.za); and
- from the website of the Information Regulator at [PAIA Guidelines - Information Regulator \(info regulator.org.za\)](http://info regulator.org.za), where the Guide is available in English, Afrikaans, isiNdebele, isiXhosa, isiZulu, Siswati, Sepedi, Sesotho, Setswana, Tshivenda and Xitsonga.

5 HOW TO REQUEST ACCESS TO RECORDS HELD BY LWEZI

Requests for access to records held by LWEZI must be made on the request form entitled "Form 2: Request for Access to Record [Regulation 7]", which is available from our website (insert URL) and head office, as well the website of the Information Regulator at [PAIA Forms - Information Regulator \(info regulator.org.za\)](http://info regulator.org.za).

A request fee may be payable. The schedule of fees can be accessed at <https://www.justice.gov.za/legislation/notices/2021/20210827-gg45057gon757-PAIAregulations.pdf> (page 32) or <https://www.justice.gov.za/legislation/notices/2021/20210827-gg45057gon757-PAIAregulations.pdf> (page 32). You can submit a request without paying the request fee but please note that payment of the prescribed fees must be made before the request will be processed.

Requests for access to records must be made to our Information Officer at the address, fax number or electronic mail address provided for below.

The requester must provide sufficient detail on the request form to enable the Information Officer to identify the record and the requester. The requester should also indicate which form of access is required and indicate if he or she wishes to be informed in any other manner and state the necessary particulars to be so informed.

The requester must identify the right that he or she is seeking to exercise or protect and provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right.

If a request is made on behalf of a person, the requester must then submit proof, to the satisfaction of the Information Officer of LWEZI, of the capacity in which the requester is making the request.

The standard form that must be used for the making of requests is Form 2. Not using this form, or not providing sufficient information, may result in your request being refused or delayed.

Kindly note that all requests to LWEZI will be evaluated and considered in accordance with the PAIA Act and the POPIA Act. The publication of this manual and the description of the categories and subject matter of information held by LWEZI does not give rise to any rights (in contract or otherwise) to access such information or records except in terms of the PAIA Act.

10.4 Planned transborder flows of personal information

Where transborder flows of Personal Information is required, LWEZI will ensure that it:

- takes steps to determine whether you are entitled to transfer personal information about a data subject to a third party in a foreign country; and
- confirms that at least one of the additional requirements have been met:
 - the third party is subject to a law, binding corporate rules or binding agreement which provides an adequate level of protection of personal information;
 - the data subject consented to the transfer of the personal information to the third party in a foreign country;
 - the transfer is necessary for the performance of a contract between the data subject and your company, or for the implementation of pre-contractual measures taken in respect of a request by the data subject;
 - the transfer is necessary for the conclusion or performance of a contract concluded between your company and the third party in the interests of the data subject; or
 - the transfer is for the benefit of the data subject and it is not reasonably practical to obtain the consent of the data subject to that transfer and if it were practical, the data subject would have provided their consent.

10.5 Security measures implemented by LWEZI

Security measures implemented or to be implemented by LWEZI to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability for the personal information which may be or is being processed by LWEZI: Sec 51 (1)(c)(v):

LWEZI continuously establishes and maintains appropriate, reasonable technical and organisational measures to ensure that the integrity of the personal information in its possession or under its control is secure and that such information is protected against unauthorised or unlawful processing, accidental loss, destruction or damage, alteration or access by having regard to the requirements set forth in law, in industry practice and generally accepted information security practices and procedures within LWEZI.
